

ARCHBISHOP OF DETROIT

May 2019

Dear Friends of the Divine Mercy Center,

I am glad to be able to extend a word of welcome to all of you who have gathered to support the Divine Mercy Center during this 2019 Mission of Mercy fundraiser. Thank you for your investment in this important apostolate in the Archdiocese of Detroit.

I was heartened to hear that a particular theme of the evening will be devoted to highlighting how the Center is serving to help fulfill our call to “Andiamo” – to “Go” – and Unleash the Gospel to those around us. This sort of reflection is something which all our Catholic institutions, apostolates, and parishioners are called to undertake: to open our hearts and eyes once again, to make sure we are responding fully to the ways Christ may be calling us to share Him with those around us. As supporters of the Center, you know the incredible joy of knowing his Mercy. When our hearts and eyes are fully open, we can only conclude that he wants all of Southeast Michigan to know and receive it as well – through us!

Thank you for your support of the Divine Mercy Center, which allows this never-ending work to continue. Entrusting you to the intercession of St. Anne, patroness of Detroit, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Most Reverend Allen H. Vigneron
Archbishop of Detroit
